Rite of Election

Last weekend at the Cathedral, three adults and three children were present to sign their names in the official Book of the Elect. These people, now called the Elect, are in the final preparation step on their journey to Baptism. Paige McGuan, one of the six, will be baptized here at the Cathedral at the Easter Vigil. This Lenten period is an important time for her and the other Elect to deepen their relationship with God and to focus on areas of their lives which need attention. Please join them in prayerful support during this time as we all travel together through this season of Lent.
