Empty Bowls on April 25, 2010

It is almost time for the 2010 Empty Bowls.

Empty Bowls is based on a national program to raise the awareness of hunger. Individuals purchase tickets and stand in line to receive soup and bread, experiencing a similar circumstance to what hungry people have to do everyday. Attendees also pick out a handmade bowl out of hundreds of bowls. As many might know, Empty Bowls is Glory Hole's biggest annual fund-raiser. This year's Empty Bowls will take place on Sunday, April 25 and promises to be as wonderful as ever, with delicious soups donated by local businesses, as well as bread, cookies, and other edibles. Also this year, please look forward to a shorter line to get in, wonderful musical entertainment, and more.

Right now we are looking for bowls. All the amazing potters who have supported us in the past, please support us again this year! This event is only possible because of you. Thank you so much in advance for your talents and generosity. The bowls can be dropped off at the Glory Hole.

Empty Bowls Needs:

We are looking for donations of the following items:

BEAUTIFUL HANDMADE BOWLS

Plastic spoons

Plastic knives

Plastic Bowls
